Success Story of the Month

Mia

Mia the chihuahua x was brought into the rescue as a stray via the Animal welfare officer. She was thought to be around 2 years old and had had all her fur shaved off so we suspect she'd had a severe flea infection. She was very timid around people initially.

Mia was fostered with multiple dogs and it soon became apparent she loved dogs around her size but had some fear of larger dogs.

We found her a fantastic home with a chihuahua previously adopted from us and they now enjoy camper van holidays with their lovely family.

Rescue Dog of the Month

Chief

Chief is a 2 year old large saluki x. He's 2 years old, neutered and fully vaccinated. He has spent most of his life in a kennel. He does have a big prey drive.

Chief is mostly very chilled and is a very affectionate boy.

Due to his prey drive he cannot go with small furries.

He walks well with other lurchers after an introduction.

He is reactive on the lead which we continue to work with.

We would not rehome Chief with children. He's an absolutely gorgeous boy and a real favourite at the kennels.

If you are a match for Rudi please email northumberlandogrescue@gmail.com with details about your home environment.

Spotlight On Our Team

Ted

I'm Ted, a lurcher found as a stray. I arrived at NDR late summer 2020. The humans were still being locked up but were allowed to take us rescues out. No one really knows what my life was like before but I do like to chase stuff, rabbits, pheasants, that sort of thing.

It was obvious to me that Annie the volunteer was going to crack, so I put on the charm and the puppy eyes and was taken home to live with her and Wal where I made myself right at home. Annie walked other rescue dogs so it was obvious to me if I was a good boy and walked happily with them I would get more walks, it was a no brainer I got to meet all of the rescues, she got to meet all of the rescues, everyone was happy. I particularly like other lurchers, collies, and GSD's. I am not too sure of the funny face dogs, they sound weird and as for chihuahuas, you've got to watch them or they bite your legs.

I have been a volunteer with NDR for 3 years now and my main motivation is biscuits and walks out.

NDR Hidden Heroes 1 of 2

I have loved working with animals of all kinds ever since I was a teenage veterinary nurse, but after moving to Northumberland over a decade ago my focus has been almost exclusively on dog training.

Having completed a Level 4 Diploma in Canine Behaviour, I became a Dog Training College Approved Trainer, a Certified Pro-Dog Trainer with the Absolute Dogs Academy and ultimately set up my business, Leaps & Bounds Dogs, which provides force-free training and behaviour solutions for dogs of all ages. Through my enthusiasm for canine sports I am also involved with canicross, agility, scentwork and parkour activities.

NDR Hidden Heroes 2 of 2

I first started helping NDR when kennel manager, Sue, asked for a 'bit of advice' with a few of the more difficult dogs.

Since then I've continued to support Sue, including speaking with owners and fosterers of NDR dogs if they're struggling with any issues, and delivering training sessions and talks for staff and volunteers.

I also recently designed and ran a Have-a-Go parkour course for the charity's Sunday Funday at Bamburgh Castle.

I'm delighted to be helping NDR in the vital work they do - it is a genuinely rewarding experience to be involved with such a fantastic organisation and with an equally fantastic bunch of people.

Kim.
